

May 17, 1939.

Prof. W. R. Valentine,
Manual Training School,
Bordentown, N. J.

Dear Sir:

Enclosing check for twenty five dollars ($25.00) balance due for services of Bordentown Manual Training School Band, Sunday
May 14th, 1939.

I want to thank you for your co-operation and tell you every one enjoyed the Band very much. I hope the dinner was satisfactory.

I am also enclosing a check for five dollars($5.00) for ten tickets for the Band Concert and returning fifteen tickets. I have still twenty five to account for, and will endeavor to get the money or tickets in the next few days. I have been very busy.

Hope the Members of the faculty who attended enjoyed the game.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ